   We won!
Create a Fourth of July parade banner that commemorates the reasons the Continental Army was able to defeat the British in the Revolutionary War. Complete these steps:

1. Create a slogan for your banner in large letters. For example, your slogan might say: “David Defeats Goliath: How We Won Our Independence.”

2. Decorate the banner with at least five simple visual symbols that represent different reasons the Americans won the Revolutionary War. For example, you might draw the French flag to represent the French assistance that helped the Americans win.

3. Beneath the banner, write a three- or four-word caption that explains what each symbol represents. For example, as a caption for the French flag, you might write, “Help from French Allies.”
